

Learn the Recorder

The best way to learn about music is to play an instrument

- *It's the easiest to play
- *The easiest to learn
- *The easiest to own

Enjoy the pleasure of playing beautiful music with others or even by yourself. The recorder is very inexpensive to own, easily portable and most of all, so easy to learn to play.

This ancient, yet modern instrument was played by kings, and today is played in small amateur groups and professional orchestras alike.

Your instructors are Richie and Elaine Henzler of COURTLY MUSIC UNLIMITED in Warrensburg. They have over 40 years of teaching experience with children and adults of all ages, are patient Juilliard grads with a passion for music and the recorder. They would love to share this with you.

*According to recent studies - music lessons have benefits long after lessons have stopped. Musical training improves the brain's ability to discern the components of sound. Skill in appreciating the subtle qualities of sound even against a noisy background, is important not just for a child but also for older people. Those who play as they age preserve the auditory processing skills in their brains that control hearing and understanding.
Improves: ability to focus, eye-hand coordination, breath control*
